MEMORANDUM FOR: OGC Attorneys

SUBJECT: Availability of CIA Case Law

1. I propose that we collect what we can of pleadings, legal papers and related materials, together with a narrative statement by an OGC lawyer, on the various cases with which CIA has had direct or indirect association in the past and also cases which come up in the future. I would hope that in most cases it would be useful to collect the unclassified materials into a bound volume which would be part of our OGC Library. In some instances it might also be useful to have a bound classified volume, which of course would require safekeeping.

2. The cases mentioned below, together with a lawyer best informed, come to mind:

3. [REDACTED] is guiding this project. Please cooperate with him as he requests your assistance. This specifically includes writing a history of the case to be included in the volume. The history should be specific, informative, accurate and detailed. It is particularly important to include all information and background which are not revealed in the pleadings and memoranda.

4. Also please think of any other cases which might be appropriate for collection in this manner and advise [REDACTED] In some instances it might be desirable to include at least the narration of a matter which did not acquire the status of litigation.
